TICKETS AVAILABLE THROUGH TOMORROW, FRIDAY FEB 3

(February 2, 2006) Tomorrow -- Friday, Feb. 3 -- is the last day to reserve dinner tickets to the City of Frisco's 10th Annual Daddy Daughter Dances, which are moving to the Frisco Conference Center. This is the first year meals are being offered, which is optional. Dance tickets still remain for both dances, scheduled for Saturday, Feb. 11 -- but tickets are selling fast!

You can purchase tickets to the dances for $10 each during regular business hours at Alumni Hall Fitness Center, which is located on the Preston Ridge Campus of the Collin County Community College (west of the Superdome).

In an effort to offer more tickets, Parks and Recreation moved the event to the grand ballroom, of the Frisco Conference Center, 7600 John Q. Hammons Drive, (southeast corner of Gaylord Parkway and Parkwood Drive) which enabled the department to offer 1000, more tickets than last year.

This year, two dances are scheduled. The first dance will be held from 6 – 8 p.m., for ages 4 – 6. The second dance will be held from 8:30 – 10:30 p.m., for ages 7 – 12.

Optional dinner tickets are available for $20 for adults. Meal tickets for children are $12 for ages 7 – 12 and $6 for ages 4 – 6. Dinner will be served during two sittings – the first from 5 – 6:30 p.m. and the second sitting from 7:30 – 9 p.m.

There are no exchanges or refunds – and tickets will NOT be sold at the door. For more information, call 972-377-1752.
